

Ph.D. Plan of Study

Ph.D. Plan of Study

Minimum 57 hours of course work

Portfolio

General Examination

Ph.D. Dissertation

Program Prerequisites

All students in the Ph.D. program in Bilingual Education must have satisfactorily completed the core course work in Bilingual Education at the M.A. level or its equivalent.

EDCI	304	Foundations of Bilingual Education
EDCI	312	Bilingualism and Second Language Acquisition
EDCI	313	Bilingual Education and Biliteracy
EDCI	315	Educational Linguistics

Bilingual Education Ph.D. Core Courses (12 hours)

EDCI	413	Assessment of Bilingualism
EDCI	414	Advanced Issues in Bilingual Education
EDCI	421	Advanced Issues in Second Language Acquisition
EDCI	422	Social and Political Context of Bilingual Education

Research Methods (12hours)

All of the following:

ESPY	309	Quantitative Methods in Research I
ESPY	313	Quantitative Methods in Research II
ESPY	365	Qualitative Methods of Educational Research

And one of the following:

ESPY	441	Methods and Techniques of Educational Research
EDCI	436	Educational Ethnography
EDCI	437	Advanced Methods of Educational Research

Area of Specialization (9 hours)

Three courses in an approved area of specialization, including a relevant section of EDCI 410 (Seminar in Bilingual Education).

Area of Specialization II (9 hours)

Three courses in an approved area of specialization, including a relevant section of EDCI 410 (Seminar in Bilingual Education).

Dissertation Preparation (15 hours)

GRAD	495	Doctoral Dissertation Research
------	-----	--------------------------------